

Family Reunions

Family reunions are a way of life in the South. They go with "Dinner on the Ground" at country churches, homecoming celebrations, community cemeteries, and Sunday dinners.

Notable Reunions

These families plan on regular reunions each year. Often you don't even have to be a member of the family to attend--being a good friend may be enough to get you a great, home-cooked meal and lots of conversation.

Hassells

Celebrated each